What We're About

The Sallal Grange is a generalist community organization celebrating rural community, friendship, food, music, crafts, and more!

We are poised in a beautiful location with a great group of individuals to work within our community in nearly any way imaginable. Where there is a will, we can usually find a way!

What Can I Do?

Join in on, or volunteer at, our existing exciting activities

Do you have an idea for a community service but need help and a venue?

Have a great event idea that needs volunteers and a space?

Want to support local arts, music, and community projects?

Support and coordinate fundraisers for local organizations and causes.

What's a Grange?

The Grange, officially the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, is a national fraternal organization founded in 1867 and headquartered in Washington, D.C. encouraging families to band together to promote the economic and political well-being of their community with a strong focus on agriculture.

Sallal Grange History

The Sallal Grange was originally chartered on September 4th, 1930, where it represented the towns of North Bend, Meadowbrook, and Snoqualmie. We have been a community hall, polling station, fair grounds, political voice, dance hall, Twin Peaks film set just to name a few.

What We Have Been Doing Recently

Since our re-charter in 2009, we have been constantly busy within our community. Below is only a glimpse at the fun!

Collected thousands of dollars and pounds of food for local food banks

Raising thousands for local organizations

Crafting hundreds of hand-made blankets for at risk youth through Project Linus

Bringing traditional dancing, with lessons, to the Valley

Hosting Local Rummage Sales & Bazaars

Collecting Tons of Electronics for Recycling and saving them from landfills

Hosting regular open-mic nights and guest artist concerts
